About QUT

QUT is a major Australian university with a global reputation and a 'real world' focus. Our courses equip our students and graduates with the skills and mindset they need to realise their full potential in a rapidly changing world.

With more than 50,000 students across two inner-city campuses in Brisbane, QUT offers academic programs in fields spanning business, creative industries, education, engineering, health, law, science and social justice across five faculties.

We are transforming the learning experience—embedding work integrated learning and focusing on developing entrepreneurial skills. We offer executive education and professional development through QUTeX, flexible learning through QUT Online and pathways into our undergraduate programs through QUT College.

With a history of access, innovation and inspiration, QUT has maintained a strong ethos of being the university for the real world. Our students experience award-winning teaching, high levels of satisfaction and excellent graduate employment outcomes.

We are an ambitious institution, with strong research programs which connect with fundamental enquiry into societal outcomes.

QUT is well known for our strong links to industry and government, and our interdisciplinary teams create high-impact research in areas as diverse as climate change mitigation, digital media, materials science and biomedical innovation.

Our Vision

With a commitment to enhancing the staff and student experience and doubling Indigenous enrolments over the next five years, Connections—the QUT Strategy 2023 to 2027— is a bold plan to transform the learning experience.

Our strategy establishes QUT as 'the university for the real world', and charts our provision of transformative education, student experiences, and research that is relevant to our communities.

The strategy connects aspiration to opportunity for our students and staff, it expands pathways for our Indigenous Australian students, and it builds supportive research environments.

QUT will also develop a curriculum transformation approach that responds to demand from students to support their journey from high school to graduation and beyond and reinforces the value of professional connections within the curriculum.

QUT Values and Priorities

Aligned to and supporting our vision are the QUT Values:

- Ambition
- Curiosity
- Inclusiveness
- Innovation
- Integrity
- Academic Freedom

Underpinned by our Priorities:

- Creativity and entrepreneurship
- Health and wellbeing
- Inclusion and social justice
- Recognising and fostering Indigenous Australian excellence
- Sustainability and the environment

About the Administrative Division

Administrative Division supports the governance and operations of the University, including planning and quality, facilities and services for students and staff. The Administrative Division is led by the Vice-President (Administration) and University Registrar.

About the People Services Portfolio

The People Services Portfolio provides a range of high quality services designed to enrich the staff and student experience at QUT. Services provided by the Portfolio span across the entire student and staff life cycle. In addition, the Portfolio provides advice and leadership to the university on a broad range of student and staff matters, including social justice and public policy.

The Portfolio consists of a range of departments and areas that support non-academic student-focused services and/or our staff. It also has strong links to the rest of the Division and all parts of the University.

The Portfolio aspires to be a collaborative, distinctive and innovative portfolio that makes a real and positive difference. The Portfolio is focused on delivering services to support the university's commitment to an exceptional student and staff experience, leading to positive outcomes in student success, retention and completion. This includes developing a campus culture which is inclusive, safe, and respectful for all students and staff.
